LANDMARK TOWER and PLAZA

Standing 296 meters high, Landmark Tower is the tallest skyscraper in Japan. A 40-second ride on the world's fastest elevator skyrockets you to the 69th floor observatory, "Sky Garden" where you can enjoy breathtaking panoramic views. Floors 49-70 serve as a hotel while offices occupy the other floors. Landmark Plaza is the building adjacent to the tower that houses 200 various shops and restaurants. The Dockyard Garden is a replica of the stone made dockyard originally constructed in 1896 by Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, Co., Ltd. Hidden behind the huge stone blocks are many delicious eateries. Yurindo Bookstore, on the 5th Floor of Landmark Plaza, has a large selection of Japanese and Foreign Books. If you're teaching English, this might be a good place to go! To get to Landmark Tower and Plaza, take the escalator and the moving walking after leaving Sakuragicho Station.

QUEEN'S SQUARE

Queen's Square, located between Landmark Tower and the Pacifico Yokohama, consists of 3 office tower building of gradually ascending heights. A walkway connects Queen's Square to Landmark Tower and Pacifico Yokohama. Visitors will find more shops and eateries, including a Hard Rock Cafe (Queen's Square Tower A) and for those coffee lovers, Starbucks!

PACIFICO YOKOHAMA

Pacifico Yokohama is an international convention center consisting of a convention hall, conference center, exhibition hall, the Pan Pacifico Hotel and the Yokohama Grand Intercontinental Hotel. In keeping with the "port" theme, the Yokohama Grand Intercontinental Hotel is built in the shape of a sail.
